Yom HaShoah to Feature Holocaust Survivors, Portraits and Stories

Join Cypress College at their first-ever Holocaust Remembrance Day Event

Holocaust survivor Dr. Jacob Eisenbach is among the evening's featured speakers.

Cypress College will host Yom HaShoah on May 4 from 7-8:30 p.m. adjacent to the campus pond. Inspired by Professor Cliff Lester's unique portraits of Holocaust survivors, the evening will promote acceptance, inclusion, diversity, and justice, regardless of one's race, religion, color, or creed.

Dr. Jacob Eisenbach and Ms. Natalie Weinstein-Gold, both Holocaust survivors, are among the ceremony's featured speakers, as well as Cypress College Dance students, Professor Lester's photography exhibit, and the lighting of memorial candles.

Admission and parking are free and all are welcome to attend. For more information, visit the Cypress College website.

District Office and SCE Welcome New Employees

Jean Foster,
Executive Assistant II, Chancellor's Office

Jean comes to the Chancellor's Office from the Math and Computer Science Division at Fullerton College, and has previous experience in the College's Office of Special Programs, as well as SCE's LEAP and High School Diploma programs. Prior to that, Jean was an elementary school teacher. She has both her bachelor's degree and multiple subject teaching credential from Cal State Fullerton.

"Walk in Her Shoes" Raises Funds for Local Organizations

Male faculty, students, and staff took a walk around the quad in high heels and raised $800 during Fullerton College's "Walk in Her Shoes" event. Participants walked to raise awareness of sexual and domestic assault, including President Greg Schulz and Interim Chancellor Fred Williams. Proceeds will benefit CSP Sexual Assault Victim & Prevention Resources, and Strength Against Violence (SAV).

Join the Board of Trustees and Interim Chancellor for Coffee

Mark your calendars for the spring coffee dates at Fullerton College and SCE/Anaheim Campus. These informal gatherings are a chance for faculty, staff and students to ask questions and have candid dialogues with Board members and the Chancellor.

The heavy downpour stopped just long enough for Fullerton College and Food Bank supporters at the April 9th Fullerton College Night at Angel Stadium baseball game. Close to 2,000 tickets were sold and over $13,000 raised to support the Chris Lamm and Toni DuBois-Walker Memorial Food Bank.

Pre-game activities, hosted by the Inter-Club Council and Associated Students, kicked off the night and included photo opportunities with Buzzy the Hornet, raffles, and live music.

President Greg Schulz met Angels pitcher Hector Santiago on the field to throw out the ceremonial first pitch, and was introduced to the entire stadium along with our Board Members and Food Bank Champions Adela Lopez and Charlene Egizi.

Limited edition baseball hats are still available in the Fullerton College bookstore for $15, and a portion of the proceeds will benefit the Food Bank. Visit the College's Facebook page to view photos from the exciting night!

Dr. Sam Foster to Serve on Statewide Academic Senate

Congratulations to Dr. Sam Foster, Fullerton College Chemistry Professor, on being elected to the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges. This 14-member committee is elected each year by Academic Senate delegates. Among the Committee's many duties are to adopt and implement policies and procedures to help strengthen academic senates throughout California.

Record-Breaking Attendance at Strategic Conversation #17

Trustee Jacqueline Rodarte with SCE faculty and staff.

College readiness was the topic of discussion at Tuesday's Strategic Conversation, with a record-breaking 163 faculty, staff and students from throughout the District in attendance. The evening provided opportunities to learn from one another and share best practices, as well as discussion on what more we can do District-wide to ensure our students' success.

Sustainability Planning

Join us at the first round of forums for our District-wide Sustainability Plan. These interactive workshops will consist of group activities to identify goals and develop benchmarks to track overall improvement in resource efficiency.

Please RSVP to Perrin Pellegrin at (815) 570-7429 or perrin@iworkshopconsulting.com.
